ABOUT THE CITY.

D. J. Hennessy of Butte was in town yesterday.

The only perfect medicine for catarrh is the Bore Mouth. It will cure you.

There will be a grand cake walk and minstrel performance at Evans opera house Thursday evening, Oct. 25. T. J. Jefferson, manager; L. R. Ridley, chairman.

J. M. Pickett hereby announces himself as an independent democratic candidate for constable for the township of Anaconda and respectfully solicits your suffrage at the coming election.

The populists held an enthusiastic meeting in their hall last night, though the center of the evening, E. F. Hopton, did fail to show up. T. F. Russell and William Edwards were the speakers.

A. M. Walker, formerly manager of the Walker house at Carroll, will assume the management of the Commercial hotel on the 10th inst. Mr. Walker thoroughly understands the hotel business and will no doubt make a success of his new venture.

D. D. Walker purchased 1,500 head of cattle during his recent trip to Washington, the stock arriving here Wednesday in four big trains of cattle cars. Three hundred head were sent out of the herd for local trade while the balance, principally yearlings, were started on the way to the Big Horn ranch of Mr. Walker's, where they will be wintered.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Montana were as follows: W. A. Sherwood, Butte; H. Eppenstein, Chicago; F. W. Martin and wife, Butte; C. E. Brown, Denver; D. J. Hennessy, Butte; Sam Boswell, city; J. W. Holmes, Butte; E. R. Glidden, Chicago; C. M. Whitney, St. Paul; Chas. T. Perry, Helena; D. A. Lucas, Helena; J. E. Russell, West Superior, Wis.

A full account of the shooting of Chauncey W. West, the well-known conductor, near Butte yesterday morning by a tramp named Jack Fugh, appears in another column under Butte date. A special train conveyed Mrs. West from Anaconda to Butte yesterday morning and the four children of the unfortunate conductor left for Butte on the afternoon train.

Word was received last night that the local baseball players had arrived in Missoula and were feeling fine. Larry Gieson, instead of Mr. Smith, will play with the Anacondas. Mike Dwyer telegraphed that early last evening it was raining, but at midnight it was clearing sufficiently to warrant the prediction of good weather for today. He also states that he is confident of coming home victorious.

J. M. Pickett has filed his certificate of nomination as independent democratic candidate for constable of Anaconda township. The following is the list of names attached to the document: A. P. Cloutier, merchant, wholesaler and retailer; C. J. Collins, retail merchant; David Cohen, retail merchant; Andy Mandell, grocery merchant; G. W. Collins, restaurant; L. G. Smith, wholesaler and retail druggist; E. V. Collins, wholesaler merchant; Edward Devine, grocery; J. V. Petrie, real estate; D. D. Baker, wholesaler and retail butcher; Joseph Paul, lawyer; M. J. Louth, hotel proprietor; Thomas Garvin, hotel proprietor; Frank Strickland, E. J. Jacobson, furniture dealer; Theodore Johnson, retail liquor merchant; Thomas Leary, retail liquor merchant; Joseph Steiger, retail liquor merchant; P. J. Sargent, retail liquor merchant; A. Fortier, butcher.

KATIE EMMETT.

She Will Appear at the Evans Next Thursday in "Killarney."

Says the Chicago Inter Ocean of a recent date: "In full view of high on 2,000 people in the Haymarket theater, last night, Katie Emmett left Chicago, and for three short hours sailed far away among the green hills and silvery lakes of Killarney. This fleeting trip to the Emerald Isle proved fully as enjoyable to the audience as it did to Miss Emmett, and that little woman's eyes fairly sparkled with pleasure and contentment. 'Killarney' is a typical Irish play. It abounds in personae who wear green cordorows and dancing shoes with shining silver buckles and merry faced colleens clothed in short kilts and gray colors. It is essentially a starring play. Katie Emmett does as much to make life in Ireland attractive as ever Dion Boucicault did in 'Shanghaun' or 'Colleen Bawn.' Miss Emmett's acting is fascinating and vivacious. Her singing is sweet and her dances possess a catchy swing that makes the audience itch to jump up and dance with her. Robert Sheridan is the leading man. In his role as the much abused hero he divides the sympathies of the audience with his pretty heroine. Next to Miss Emmett the prettiest attraction in the play is the scenery. Some of the sweetest nooks in all Ireland are being copied as a background for the stirring scenes of 'Killarney.'"

This fine attraction will appear at Evans opera house on Thursday evening, Oct. 11, and reserved seats may be secured at the usual place next Tuesday.

HE HAD SEVERAL NAMES

A Young Man Who Said: I Was a Discoliva.

OTHERS SAY HE IS NO GOOD

The Tailors Organize a Union With a New Bill of Prices—Other Gossip About the Town.

A well dressed young fellow arrived in Anaconda from Butte Wednesday and proceeded to play one of those billiard games that you read about. He made himself popular with everybody who met him. He bought drinks and cigars for all kinds of people and managed, by clever lying, to borrow money in small sums from Anacondans who are not supposed to be such. He claimed to be a detective under authority of United States Marshal McDermott, and even went so far as to send a pair of handcuffs via the Pacific Express company to Sheriff Reynolds of Butte. He told one young man that he was a civil engineer and that his name was Horn, another that it was Hogan, another Morgan and so on. He also took an empty value to the Montana hotel Wednesday evening and borrowed $2.25 from the night clerk, saying he had deposited $50 with the day clerk and would return the change in the morning. But Chief Fagan got on to the young man's transactions yesterday afternoon and locked him up in jail.

The Tailors Organize.

The journeymen tailors of this city organized a union last Wednesday night to be known as Anaconda local union No. 25, and the secretary has applied for a charter from the Journeymen Tailors' Union of America. The bill of prices adopted was accepted by all employees in the city and the schedule will soon be printed and hung up in the several tailor shops around town. Union labels, to be attached to every garment made in Anaconda, will arrive Monday next. Among those signing the wage schedule were Thomas V. Linton, O. Savard, W. C. Grover, Mrs. J. H. Myers, Martin Michel and John Cogan. The utmost harmony exists between employer and employee and there is no reason why the new union should not develop into one of the strongest in the city. This city of unions and well paid workmen generally makes it a point to patronize home industries and the agents of eastern firms who have heretofore reaped a harvest in these parts will discover that things have changed—that clothes made in Anaconda will be given the preference hereafter. There are two other tailors' unions in Montana—one in Great Falls and another in Helena. Helena has a tailors' union two years ago but there is some doubt whether the members of the workingmen are given the work for the people of Last Chance gulch. The officers of the new union are as follows: President—Dennis Ryan. Treasurer—O. Erickson. Secretary—E. Morris.

Capital Meetings.

The Anaconda-for-the-Capital club will hold its regular meeting in Evans opera house this evening. A good programme has been prepared.

The Austro-Slavonian-American Capital held its weekly meeting last night at Barrieh's hall, with a large attendance. Eloquent speeches were made by Nick Bonanatti and Peter Ivanovich after which the membership of the workingmen was enlarged by the addition of 45 new names.

COOKS AND WAITERS MEET.

Why Cooks, Waiters and Kitchen Help Should Vote for Anaconda.

Three years ago there was but one white crew working in the city. That was at the Montana hotel. The rest of the restaurants and boarding houses were either run by Chinese or were run by the Chinese themselves. The labor leaders of the city, particularly John Barry, whom the cooks and waiters consider the father of their union, backed by the citizens and workmen of the city formed a cook and waiters' assembly of the E. of L., and by perseverance and strict attention to the Chinese boycott there is not a single Chinese restaurant in the city, nor is Chinese help of any kind employed here.

Our union is now strong both numerically and financially. Our pay roll is more than $65,000 per year, which money flows into the channels of commerce. The same money if it was paid to the Chinese would go back to the country they came from, never more to return to the United States. Our wages here are nearly 100 per cent. higher than they are in the city of Helena. Therefore be it

Resolved, that the cooks, waiters and kitchen employees of this city call on all brother craftsmen in the state of Montana to help to elect as the capital of the city that stands by them in everything that helps to elevate their craft, and be it further

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be printed in every paper in the state that favors union labor.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK JORDAN, Chairman

Study the Questions.

From the Bozeman Chronicle.
When you can get away from the noise of this capital contest, and can sit down and quietly think, ask yourself what Helena has ever done for the Gallatin valley? And then, when you have fully digested that question, look into the future and try to study out what Helena can and will do for you in the future. These are the leading questions in this capital campaign.

ANACONDA, Mont., Oct. 5, 1894.—As the boycott has been amicably settled between Cushing's barber shop and the Barbers' assembly, the cooks and waiters recommend them to all as a fair shop.
